

Emily Maupin
Licensed Master Social Worker

Emily Maupin received her Bachelor's degree in Psychology from The College of Idaho and her Master degree in Social Work from Boise State University.

Emily is trained and experienced in Family Systems Therapy, Grief and Loss Therapy, CBT, Trauma Focused Therapy, Solution Focused Therapy, and Applied Behavior Analysis.

Emily is passionate about working with children, teens, and adults. She has worked with a variety of populations and focused on working with children and families with developmental disabilities. Emily has also worked with individuals who struggled with anxiety, depression, and other mental health struggles.

Emily believes in developing a unique relationship specific to each client that will foster the most effective results. When Emily is not working, she enjoys spending time with her family outside, hiking, fishing, and watching football.